

Yearly secchi depths are averages of volunteer measurements over at least three summertime months for the volunteer monitoring program within the Indiana Clean Lakes Program.